Student Discipline

Annual Review

The following rules and regulations relating to the conduct of students during school hours and school sponsored activities are to be reviewed annually by the District 200 Discipline Task Force.

Discipline Code for North Boone School District 200

The administration of North Boone Community Unit School District 200 shall publish the following Discipline Code for all students. A copy shall be distributed to each student and/or parent/guardian as the student registers for classes. Registration is not considered complete until the student's parents or guardians return the required "Parental Signatures Forms".

A copy of the discipline code is attached herewith and adopted as part of this policy:
