Capron Elementary School is the recipient of a Walmart Teacher Rewards Grant of $1000. Ten teachers will each receive $100 Walmart gift cards to be used for teaching materials. grant will be awarded by Belvidere Store Manager Monty Hays at approximately 2:15 on September 30, 2011 as part of Capron's monthly award program.

According to Hays, "Walmart appreciates the impact teachers continue to make in our community. We know our educators contribute not only their time, but also their money to ensure our students have a successful school year. The Teacher Rewards program is our way of saying thank you."

Matt Klett, Capron principal, was excited when heard about the fact Walmart was going to give grants to ten Capron teachers. Klett stated that he was glad to have community minded businesses such as Walmart in Boone County who are willing to help out his teachers and students.

Walmart's Teacher Reward program is in its third year and is an extension of Walmart's ongoing support of education and local community involvement. In 2010, Walmart and its foundation gave out more than $89 million to fund education, health and children's programs.
