The First Annual Battle of the Barns Chili Cook Off will be held at North Boone High School on December 16. WTVO sports director Scott Leber will lead the panel of celebrity chili judges.

This fundraiser will take place Friday, December 16, when the North Boone Vikings host the Harvard Hornets Boys' Basketball Games. The chili cook off is a cooking competition between the North Boone Fire Districts, Capron Rescue District, and the Harvard Fire Protection District. This fundraiser is being sponsored by Dean Foods Harvard & Belvidere and hosted by the North Boone School District Community Involvement Committee. NBHS will begin the event with a Fire/EMS themed pep rally at 2:30 p.m. in the main gym.

Food Costs will be:

- ✓ Chili: $3.00 per bowl
- ✓ Ice Cream: $1.00 per scoop
- ✓ Hot dogs, chips, and beverages available from the concession stand
- ✓ Girls Basketball Team Bake Sale

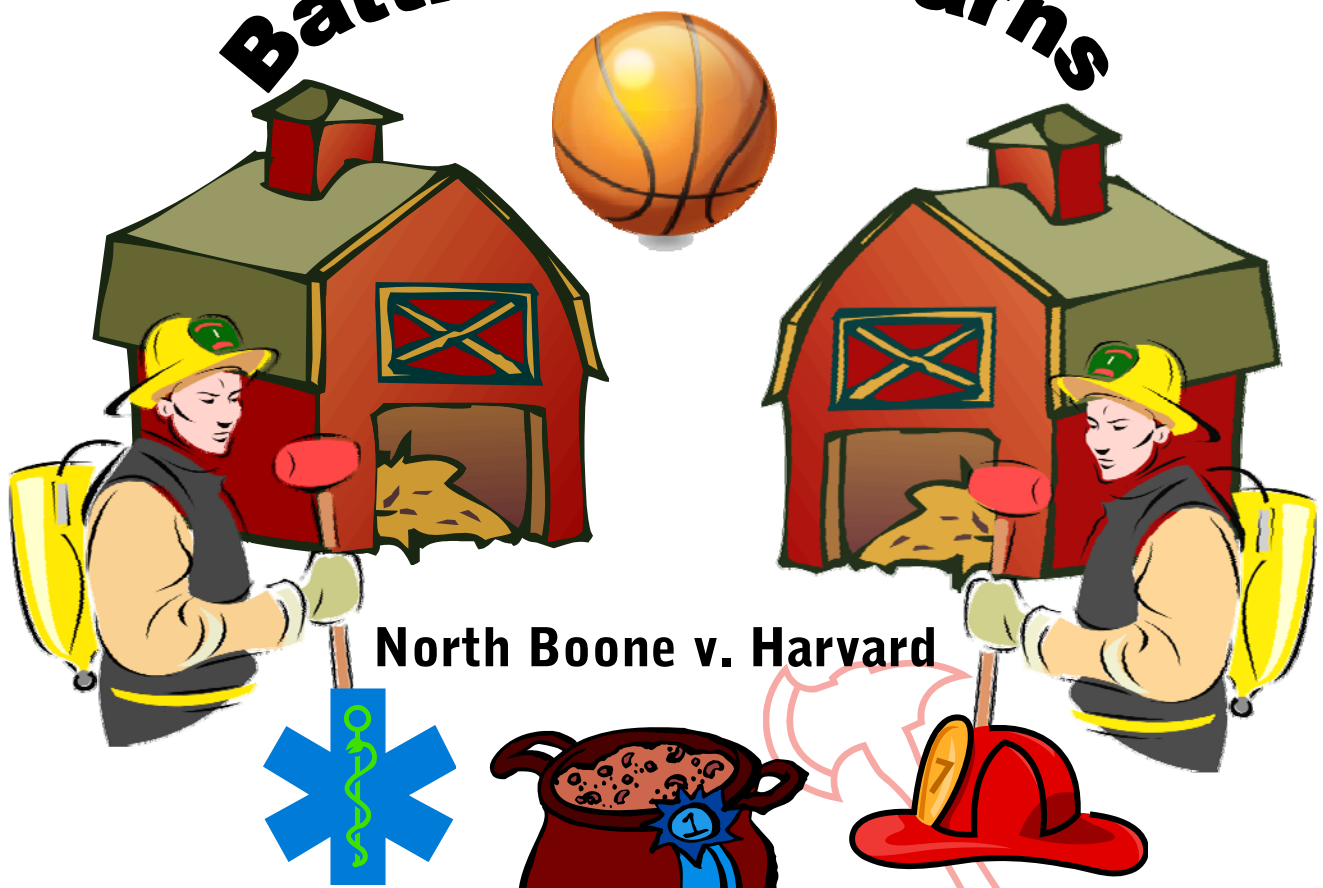

Chili will be judged at 5:30 p.m. and a traveling trophy will be awarded during half time of the varsity boy's game for the winning chili cook off team. Another traveling Battle of the Barns trophy will be awarded to the winning varsity team at the end of the evening as well. This is one more example of how the community is helping to support the North Boone schools and our students.

North Boone Community Unit School District 200 serves approximately 1800 students in pre-school through high school in the Villages of Caledonia, Capron and Poplar Grove as well as the northern tier of unincorporated Boone County, Illinois.
