January 5, 2012

The North Boone library staff have worked extremely hard to bring grant dollars into the district over the past two years. Nearly all of the grants received by the district have been touched by Jane Lenser or one of the library assistants. Over the break, we were notified that the Poplar Grove Elementary Library will be receiving this month's Jessica Sibert Memorial Book Award from Bound to Stay Bound Books (<http://www.btsb.com>). Poplar Grove's Linda Mulholland was selected as the winner of $500 in books for December 2011.

Congratulations again to Mrs. Mulholland and the North Boone Library Staff.

North Boone Community Unit School District 200 serves approximately 1750 students in pre-school through high school in the Villages of Caledonia, Capron and Poplar Grove as well as the northern tier of unincorporated Boone County, Illinois.
