North Boone is proud to announce Manchester principal, Kristi Crawford was nominated for the 2012 Puri Family Outstanding Principal Award. The award is managed by the Golden Apple Foundation. The award is based upon evidence of commitment to student achievement, leadership development, and creating a positive learning environment and a sense of community in her school.

Congratulations to Mrs. Crawford and Manchester School.

Earlier this year, 22 North Boone CUSD 200 teachers were nominated in the first stage of the Golden Apple Awards. North Boone is extremely proud of its dedicated teaching staff.

North Boone Community Unit School District 200 serves approximately 1750 students in pre-school through high school in the Villages of Caledonia, Capron and Poplar Grove as well as the northern tier of unincorporated Boone County, Illinois.
