Erin McCrystal joins the North Boone Administrative Team as the full time principal for Manchester Elementary School. Ms. McCrystal comes to us with 16 years of teaching experience in a variety of classroom settings. She began her career teaching in Special Education District of McHenry County, working with children with multiple disabilities. Moving to Canterbury Elementary in Crystal Lake #47, she spent four years teaching students with emotional and behavioral disabilities. Ms. McCrystal's last nine years have been spent in Johnsburg School District #12 working with 5th grade general education students, 6th grade LD resource and Social Studies, as well as the RTI reading and math specialist.

Ms. Erin McCrystal earned her undergraduate degree from Illinois State University in special education and then went on to North Park University to obtain a middle school endorsement. Her master's degree in educational administration and administrative certificate were obtained at St. Francis University in Joliet. For the past three years, Ms. McCrystal has taught graduate classes for The Connecting Link to other educators in order to further their academic learning.

Erin McCrystal comes from a family of educators; both parents are retired administrators and her twin sister is a science teacher in Huntley. During her time in Johnsburg, Ms. McCrystal was in charge of the 5th/6th grade student council as well as serving as the 6th grade cheerleading coach. She states that she is beyond thrilled to join the North Boone family at Manchester and cannot wait to bring her energy and enthusiasm for learning to students, staff, and parents.

North Boone Community Unit School District 200 serves approximately 1750 students in pre-school through high school in the Villages of Caledonia, Capron and Poplar Grove as well as the northern tier of unincorporated Boone County, Illinois.
