North Boone CUSD 200 would like to thank the North Boone Education Foundation for its continued support of the district and its students. This week, the Foundation announced grants to North Boone teachers to support innovative educational programming.

The Foundation awarded the following grants at the dollar amounts to the right:

Multicultural Classroom Materials for PGE ~ Emily Wykes

NBHS Team Building ~ Nick Augustine

PGE Smoothie Service ~ Kelly Lough

The Foundation received more than a dozen requests for materials and programming. Congratulations to the grant recipients. Thanks again to the Foundation for its support.

North Boone Community Unit School District 200 serves approximately 1800 students in pre-school through high school in the Villages of Caledonia, Capron and Poplar Grove as well as the northern tier of unincorporated Boone County, Illinois.
