Thanks to all of our Veterans and those Still Serving

This Veterans Day, North Boone School District would like to honor our veterans including those staff members who served our country in the military by showcasing their accomplishments and contributions to the US military.

Clayton Glasper

Clayton Glasper, an NBHS teacher assistant, is still active in the US Army Reserve. Currently, Glasper is assigned as a staff sergeant in the 379th Chemical Company based in Chicago. He is currently in his 17th year of service.

Principal Jake Hubert of North Boone High School joined the National Guard in 1999 as a Field Artillery Surveyor for the 2/122 Field Artillery Unit in Chicago. He was then commissioned as field artillery lieutenant and became the executive officer for his Battery in 2003. Jake was deployed to New Orleans with his unit in 2005 to run the security that was necessary in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina.

Jacob Hubert

Assistant principal of NBMS and NBUE Matt Klett served in the US Army for two years as a Reconnaissance Scout. Between May 1984 and May 1986, Matt was trained at Fort Knox in Tennessee and then stationed at Fort Bliss in Texas.

Matt Klett

Butch Peters, an NBHS graduate of the Class of 1966, served in Vietnam with the US Army from 1969 through early 1970 with the 1st Infantry Division. Peters has been a bus driver with North Boone since the mid-1970s.
