

North Boone

Community Unit School District 200

Staff Spotlight: Matt Klett

In this edition of Staff Spotlight, we catch up with Matt Klett, the assistant principal at NBMS & NBUE. Mr. Klett enlisted in the US Army in 1984 as a cavalry scout. He was stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas after his initial entry training at Fort Knox, Kentucky. He rose to the rank of Specialist Four during his two years in the Army. Although, the US invaded Grenada during his tenure in the military and put soldiers into Lebanon, Mr. Klett's unit wasn't deployed overseas. Mr. Klett's father also served in the US Army. He is proud of his military service and is currently the Commander of the Beloit American Legion Post.

Mr. Klett has a bachelor's degree in business education from the University of Wisconsin - Whitewater and a master's degree in Educational Administration from National Louis University in Evanston, Illinois. He comes from a family of ten children including eight brothers and a sister. He adopted his son, Trevor, when Trevor was 13 years old. He has two granddaughters, Riley and Zelda. Riley has been adopted by Mr. Klett and is giving him his first experience as a parent of an infant.

Zelda and Riley

Mr. Klett would like the North Boone Community to know that he deeply cares about the children of North Boone and hopes to move into the district soon, so Riley can go to the schools he loves so much. He doesn't want her to go anywhere else. The most difficult part of his job is "knowing that I am not able to reach all students. Also as a Packer fan, being outnumbered by all the Bear fans can be challenging at times!"

It is a honor for North Boone to be able to employ veterans like Mr. Klett, who even after military service, still have a desire to continue to serve their community.
